STARVING PAUPER CHILDREN TO DEATH. One of the most touching episodes in Dickens' works, is the story of the charity children who were boarded out at so much a week, and drugged, starved, beaten and abused by the woman who had charge of them. Perhaps every American reader has congratulated himself that in this country no such gant, does not exist in any other country. The enormities could be practised. Yet some-thing very much like it has just come to light in New York. In searching a tenement house for stolen goods, the following terrible developments were made. 'In the course of their examination of the premises, Messrs, Barker and Stokely found three little cradles in a dark bedroom, and drawing them out to the light, discovered that they contained three infants. The little creatures were covered with filth, and seemed not to have been washed for several days. The beds on which they lay were rotten with foulness, and the rags which covered them but little better. Each of them lay quiet and motionless as death. They did not have strength enough to cry. you pinched them or rolled them over they gave no motion nor sign of life. The oldest was said to be 28 months, the youngest 13. Every one of them was absolutely a living skeleton, and the largest would not weigh more than a healthy, robust babe of three months. Their little limbs were not much over an inch in diameter, at their thickest parts. At the end of their shadowy arms were little hands that looked like birds claws. One of the wretched creatures lay upon its side, with the thick part of its left arm in its mouth, from which it appeared to draw its principal nutriment. During the days and months in which it had lain in this position, it had sucked away at the limb until the flesh had grown up to the size and shape and appearance of a large, raw nipple. They had evidently been drugged, as usual, to keep them quiet, and their great, wide, staring eyes, which were the only signs of life about them, were vacant as idiots' .-It was a painful, yea, a horrible sight to witness these three suffering and helpness lit-

"Who are these, in Heaven's name?" inquired the gentlemen. "Please, Sir, they be the children missus takes to nurse for the first class Music Store. Call and examine before Almshouse, and I'm the girl she hires to purchasing elsewhere. look after'em," replied a slatternly looking girl. "What does she get for taking care of them?" they asked. "A dollar apiece for em, every week, Sir," and then the girl explained that Mrs. Cullough was one of the outdoor nurses employed by the Almshouse Governors, and showed the gentlemen the nice rolls of diap er, anneling, muslins, and bunches of warm stockings which the Almshouse people furnished for their comfort .-The girl said that this supply was renewed every three months. Yet these children were naked, and covered up with old, filthy tle old people.

"Does any visitor come to see the children?" "Oh, yes, Sir," said the girl; "Mrs. Frost comes onst a month, and Mr. Maloney, one of the Guv'ners, he comes here often, too." When our reporter called at the house in company with Mr. Stokely, on Thursday, he found that the woman which Mr. Barker had employed to take care of the children, in the absence of Mrs. Cullough, had a stirred around and put the little mannikins into clean dresses. As if expecting a visit from the powers that be, the two children of Mrs. Cullough were left as dirty and ragged as usual, to lead the visitor to think, "Well, this woman is a good nurse after all-see, she neglects her own children to care for ours.'

wasted skeletons, that moved under them.—

In a few weeks they will in all probability be duly recorded as having died of marasmus. How many more of "the children of the city" are slowly murdered by misusage and neglect in this same cruel way.

Yesterday the Almshouse officers removed the children, when it transpired that Mrs. Cullough had been drawing pay for four children. The fourth child, Mrs Cullough says, was taken some weeks ago by a friend in Third avenue, who had lost her own child and wished for this one, which looked so much like it, to supply its place." OUR MUSICAL FRIEND A WEEKLY publication of SHEET MUSIC, suitable for the players and singers of the Home circle, and consisting of sixteen pages full folio size, stitched in a handsome cover. It contains all the popular dances of the day; arrangements from the most favorite operas; scenas, songs, bal-lads, airs, &c. An abundant supply of every thing that the popular taste demands; never too difficult, always instructive, and ever fresh and delightful.

The favor with which OUR MUSICAL FRIEND has been received by the public, and the commendations it has won from the Press, are guarantees of its worth. A work so cheap, accurate and elesame amount of music procured at the regular stores would cost at least twenty times what it costs in "Our Musical Friend." Variety and excellence are secured by subscribing to a periodical so cheap, and much needed. Pieces by the following composers have appeared in the first ten numbers; the names speak for themselves; Mozart, S. Lover, Wallerstein, Meyerbeer, Flotow, Burgmuller, F Schubert, Verdi, Donizetti, Strauss, Musard, Thalberg, Balfe, Rossini, J. Weber, Kucken, Speyer, Abt, G. A. Macfarren, Bellini, H. Smart, Ascher, Crouch, D'Albert, Bishop, Auber, Paesiello, Lind-painter, Beethoven, &c., &c. All these pieces are within the range of ordinary players and singers and are invariably characterized by delicious melody and easy accompaniments.

OUR MUSICAL FRIEND is published weekly, price 10 cents, and may ordered from any bookseller or periodical dealer. It will be sent direct from the office of publication at the following rates: yearly $5; half year $2,50 Clubs, 3 copies, $14; 6 copies $26; 10 copies $40 per year; same rates for half year. No subscrip-tion taken for less than 6 months, payable in ad-
